

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

COINER'S DEPARTMENT,

September 12, 1885.

Hon. Daniel N. Fort.

Superintendent -
Sir.

This morning a number of the Cutters, Annulators, <sup>and</sup> rollers employed in the rolling room, waited upon me <sup>and</sup> their spokesman Mr. Leonard declared that they would not do any further work unless they had guarantees from the Superintendent. I suggested that they had better go back to work, <sup>and</sup> they declined, standing about in idleness, saying they must have assurance before doing it.

The names of these parties as far as I can ascertain, are as follows.

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

COINER'S DEPARTMENT,

, 188

Elias Leonard

H. W. Murray.

F. H. Colles

H. H. Haigh

H. C. Little

Thomas Billipie

G. K. Thomas.

C. J. Webster

R. Broomal (General. etc.)

Frank. Knight.

Very Respectfully,
 Obedient servant
 A. Steel
 Coiner

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 135

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,
Coiner's Department,
September 12, 1885

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Superintendent

Sir,

This morning a number of the cutters, annealers, and rollers employed in the rolling room, waited upon me and their spokesman Mr. Leonard declared that they would not do any of their work unless they had a guarantees from the Superintendent. I suggested that they had better go back to work, and they declined, standing about in idleness saying they must have assurance before doing it.

The names of these parties as far as I can ascertain, are as follows.

Elias Leonard
H.W. Murray
F.H. Coles
H.H. Haigh
H.C. Little
Thomas Gillispie
G.K. Thomas
I.J. Webeter
R. Broomal (General Dept.)
Frank Knight

Very Respectfully,
Obedient Servant,
W.S. Steel
Coiner